OSLA in Partnership with the Ontario Aphasia Centres Interest Group (OACIG)

Aphasia Knowledge Exchange Day

REGISTRATION FORM

Friday, June 2nd, 2017

9:00 am-4:00 pm

Registration starts at 8:30 a.m.

St. Joseph's Health Centre Guelph

Linamar Auditorium

100 Westmount Rd, Guelph, Ontario

In 2003, a group of speech-language pathologists formed the OACIG to link existing aphasia centres and programs in Ontario.

Members share a common interest in enhancing the life participation of people affected by aphasia across the stroke care continuum, with a focus on community re-integration.

OACIG 2017

Who should attend? Speech-Language Pathologists, Social Workers, Communicative Disorders Assistants, Social Service Workers, or other health care providers working with or interested in the field of aphasia.

What's on the agenda? Members of various aphasia centres and programs across Ontario will present on topics such as:

- Specialty programs at the Aphasia Institute (Aphasia Institute),
- Community Engagement Programs- Choir (WWRAP),
- Primary Progressive Aphasia within a coaching framework (Aphasia Institute),
- Aphasia Camps- first steps for start-up and innovative variations (Western University),
- The Caregiver Experience: Perspective from Social Workers within Ontario Aphasia Programs,
- Volunteering within aphasia programs (Aphasia Institute) And More!

(a finalized agenda will follow closer to the conference date)

Capacity of the Auditorium is limited to the first 70 registrants. Please note that Parking is $6.00 at the facility.
